New Multipurpose Hall for Old Noarlunga Primary School

Amanda Rishworth MP, Federal Member for Kingston today attended the official opening of a multipurpose hall at Old Noarlunga Primary School, built as part of the Australian Government's Building the Education Revolution (BER).

Old Noarlunga Primary School received $925,000 under the National School Pride (NSP) program and Primary Schools for the 21st Century (P21) element of the BER.

Ms Rishworth congratulated Old Noarlunga Primary School on their new facilities and spoke of the benefit to both the school and local community.

Ms Rishworth said "It is tremendous to be here today to celebrate the opening of the facilities and to witness first hand, the impact this has had on both Old Noarlunga Primary School and the local community.

"It has been fantastic to see principals, school staff, parents and tradespeople working together to deliver this important project.

"Now that this project is complete, teachers and students at Old Noarlunga Primary School will be teaching and learning in the 21st Century facilities they deserve."

Ms Rishworth said that the BER is a key element of the Australian Government's $42 billion Nation Building – Economic Stimulus Plan to support jobs, stimulate local economies and invest in important infrastructure for the long term.

Further information about this project and all schools funded under the BER is available at www.buildingtheeducationrevolution.gov.au or at: www.economicstimulusplan.gov.au.
