MEMBER FOR KINGSTON CALLS FOR COMMUNITY TO JOIN LOCAL 2020 SUMMIT

Member for Kingston, Amanda Rishworth, today invited the community to participate in a local 2020 summit, ahead of the Australia 2020 summit later this month.

“I encourage People from all walks of life from the South to attend the Kingston 2020 summit” said Ms Rishworth

Amanda said it was important that local families, business owners, young people and senior citizens were all involved.

The summit will be a key event in the lead up to the national Australia 2020 summit being held in Canberra.

Ms Rishworth will host a local summit on the 6 April, to ensure the best local ideas are collected and included in the national process.

“I have spoken with many people in my electorate and they all have presented great ideas and new perspectives on how to solve the challenges that we face as a nation.

“This summit will collate those brilliant ideas and pass them on to Australia’s top decision makers at the national Australia 2020 summit in Canberra

“I would urge anyone from the south to come along and make sure your voice is heard.”

The local summit will discuss the same ten key areas as Australia 2020 – the productivity agenda, the nation’s infrastructure, our environment, our farmers, healthcare, indigenous Australians, the arts, national security, improving the system of government and strengthening our communities.

Richard Harris, the CEO of the South Australian Film Corporation will facilitate the Creative Australia working group at the summit.

“Richard extensive experience in the film industry will be a great asset to the summit”
