New Library and Multipurpose Hall at Willunga Waldorf School

Amanda Rishworth MP, Federal Member for Kingston today attended the official opening of the new library and multipurpose hall at Willunga Waldorf School built as part of the Australian Government's Building the Education Revolution (BER).

Willunga Waldorf School received $2,125,000 under the National School Pride (NSP) program and Primary Schools for the 21st Century (P21) element of the BER.

Ms Rishworth congratulated Willunga Waldorf School on their new facilities and spoke of the benefit to both the school and local community.

Ms Rishworth said "It has been fantastic to see the principal, school staff, parents and tradespeople working together to deliver this important project. Now that it is complete, teachers and students at Willunga Waldorf School will be teaching and learning in 21st Century facilities that they so richly deserve."

Ms Rishworth said that the BER is a key element of the Australian Government's $42 billion Nation Building – Economic Stimulus Plan to support jobs, stimulate local economies and invest in important infrastructure for the long term.

Ms Rishworth said "It is tremendous to be here today to celebrate the opening of the new library and multipurpose hall and to witness first-hand the impact this has had on Willunga Waldorf School and the local community.

"I am also delighted that this particular project has supported the employment of approximately 51 workers. This is what we strived to achieve – this is the essence of the Economic Stimulus Plan."
